OUR CLIENTS

- Adult children of elderly or frail parents needing care
- Spouses no longer able to meet the demands of caregiving at home
- Powers of Attorney for an elderly family member or friend
- Isolated seniors in need of companionship and care

OUR APPROACH

CHOICE is here because the options available to seniors in our community are vast and ever changing.

CHOICE will have you work with one of our advisors who is well acquainted with the options available within the geographic location of your preference.

By working with an advisor, you will receive a tailored list of options that matches your needs, interests and situation as closely and appropriately as possible.

WE'RE WITH YOU EVERY STEP OF THE WAY

STEP 1: We receive your request for help.

STEP 2: One of our advisors will follow up with your request, either by phone or by arranging an in person meeting.

STEP 3: We'll define the options you'll want to consider. We can provide you with a written list of options that you can visit on your own, or we can contact the providers for you.

STEP 4: We'll accompany you on your visits or we can coordinate your tour of the senior living communities.

STEP 5: We are available by phone or in person to answer your questions and to provide follow up after your selection is made to ensure that you are satisfied with your decision.

OUR FREE, NO COST, REFERRAL SERVICES

There is no cost to our clients or their families to use the services of CHOICE. We're able to provide our services for free because our business partners know that CHOICE provides a high level of service to our clients and we bring those clients to the communities that can best serve their needs.

If our client selects the services of one of our business partners, CHOICE receives a "Finder's Fee" from that community.

CHOICE is contracted with the majority of housing and care providers giving you a wide array of options to cover your needs.
